QUESTION COUNCIL ON DC COP FIRING

JEFFERSON HIGH VOTES 15 CENT TAX INCREASE

In order to maintain financial reserves for Westmoor High school needs, Jefferson High School district board of trustees Monday night approved a property tax rate increase of 15 cents per $100 valuation.

The tax boost will bring the total general rate to $1.20 per $100 of assessed valuation. The rate increase will cost each homeowner between $3 and $4.50 a year.

The $1.20 figure brings the district levy to within 15 cents of its legal limit, $1.35 per $100 valuation.

The tax rate was tentatively set by the board to raise the $1,132,301 budget for the 1955-56 year. The budget originally called for by the board two weeks ago was $950,990, but was revised upward by the county superintendent of schools office, according to Superintendent Stanford Hannah.

Budget Higher

This year's budget is slightly higher than the $1,097,569 for 1954-55.

The budget calls for $722,790 in current expenses for education, $347,411 for capital outlay, $50,000 undistributed reserve, $2100 for food service and $10,000 for community service.

Revenue will be gained from the following sources (approximate amounts): Cash on hand, $450,000; federal government, $5000; state apportionment based on average daily attendance, $168,000; growth allocation, $24,000; county and miscellaneous sources, $19,551; and district property taxes, $498,750.

Suggestion by Chairman Lyal Ingersoll that money be allocated in the budget for architectural fees on a Linda Mar school was turned down. Hannah said, "We've got all the money we can possibly raise for this year." He suggested that the board start planning a Linda Mar site near the end of this fiscal year, so that architectural expenses could be met in 1956-57 fiscal year.

Hannah also pointed out that the district has a 27-acre site at Sharp Park which should handle the enrollment increase when Westmoor reaches capacity. The superintendent said Westmoor would be planned to accommodate 1000 the first year it opened, with an eventual capacity of 1800 after more classrooms are added.

Additional Costs

In addition to tax rate increase, citizens will also feel another boost in school costs. The board Monday night voted to sell bonds in lots of $500,000 each during 1956. Redemption and interest on these bonds will be figured in property taxes starting in 1956.

In other action Monday, the board:

1. Decided to supply its own water, rather than purchase it from Daly City. Hannah said the district could construct its own water installation, including pipeline and well, for $25,000.

2. Called on Engineer Edwin Smith to determine how much it cost him to replace boundary monuments at the Westmoor site and asked him to contact Henry Doelger, Builder, Inc., for possible reimbursement to the district. Ingersoll said only the Doelger company could have been responsible for obliterating the boundary marks, and held that the builder should pay for the survey work.

MAYOR TESTIFIES IN ALL DAY PROBE

By JIM KAVANAUGH

Why was David H. Johnstone fired from his position as inspector of the Daly City police department, his attorney, John J. Fahey, Jr., wants to know.

So to try to find the answer, he thoroughly grilled District Attorney Keith Sorenson Wednesday morning and Daly City's mayor, Joseph Verducci, in the afternoon.

As he scored against them during their testimony, he was applauded loudly by the partisan throng of 150 in the council chambers at the city hall, where the civil service board of review is conducting an investigation, with Harry Bosbery presiding as chairman and members John Degliantoni and Clarence Schmidt attending.

"Smear Dirt"

"You are trying to smear dirt on Dino Donati," Fahey told Sorenson, "and trying to show an association between Johnstone and Donati with the hope that some of the dirt will rub off Donati onto Johnstone."

The spectators squealed with delight in the afternoon, long after Sorenson had testified that he believed the police officer and Donati were friends because he had seen them playing golf together.

Fahey had Mayor Verducci admit that he, too, had played golf with Donati, and so had others of the council members. Even the prosecutor, City Attorney Frank Blum, admitted he had golfed with Donati and Johnstone.

"There is a difference," Blum declared. "A police inspector is not supposed to associate with persons under police investigation."

"But it is all right for you to play golf with him," Fahey thundered. "Personally, I do not expect others to observe more rigid standards than I set for myself."

Unanimous Decision

Mayor Verducci testified that Johnstone was dismissed by City Manager Howard Stites with unanimous concurrence of the city council on the basis of charges made by the district attorney and Police Chief Roland Petrocchi.

He added Chief Petrocchi told him that Johnstone had volunteered to accept suspension and demotion but not a dismissal. The mayor said that the city council had declined to accept suspension or demotion because either would be "a slap on the wrist. We had heard rumors that gamblers were operating in Daly City and we wanted to take action that would restore the city's reputation," Verducci stated.

The mayor said he had heard nothing derogatory of Johnstone until May 11, when City Manager Stites showed him a letter dated the day previously from Sorenson stating that the district attorney would not cooperate with the Daly City police unless

SF MAN DIES IN DALY CITY AFTER DRINKING BOUT

A 29-year-old San Francisco man died in his sleep Tuesday night while staying with a friend on Brunswick street in Daly City. Death followed a wild round of drinking parties held during the day.

Dead is Robert J. McNaught of 4189 Misison street. Local police were first told of the death by Kenneth O'Brien, 1126 Brunswick street, and John Antonsen,

Thieves Enter Three Mission Street Places

Police are investigating two burglaries and one attempted burglary, all of which occured within a half block of each other early Sunday morning.

Evidently the first burglary was committed at the recreation department storeroom at 55 Templeton avenue. Police said that the burglars apparently entered through a rear garage door after first using a stepladder to scale a fence.

Here burglars took tools amounting to a value of $32.50. Two of the tools taken included a pen knife and pair of pliers, which were found at the next stop along the way, the city pump house.

Although nothing was found missing from the pump house, 5985 Mission street, the place had been entered. Police found that the knife and pliers had been used to remove a glass window in the rear of the building.

Third stop along the route was a barber shop at 5997 Mission street owned by Bonifacio Melendez. The burglars had apparently entered the downstairs barber shop while Melendez slept peacefully upstairs in the living quarters.

A total of $20 had been stolen from the cash register and the bureau drawers had been ransacked.

A next-door neighbor told police the following day that he had heard someone moving about the barber shop about 4 a.m., but that he thought it was Melendez so did not investigate.

Business Manager Aronson To Leave Jeff Elementary

Harry Aronson, business manager for the Jefferson Elementary School district since 1952, will resign his position at the end of this month, it was learned today.

Aronson said he would become an agent for California Western States Life Insurance Co. because "the opportunities are better."

A resident of 330 San Mateo avenue, San Francisco, Aronson came here in 1951 and served for one year as coordinator of recreation, a dual position for Daly City and the school district.

Aronson's contract ith the school district ends July 30, at which time he will take over the insurance position. Superintendent H. Z. Weibel said the district had not taken steps toward hiring a new business manager, although the board of trustees may take the matter up for discussion at their meeting tonight (Friday).

Weibel said "We're sorry to lose Mr. Aronson. We've been very pleased with his work."

GRAND JURY, BAR TO INVESTIGATE ABORTION REPORT

As promised, District Attorney Keith Sorenson this week submitted reports on Attorney John J. Fahey to both the grand jury and to the county bar association.

The two reports specifically refer to a statement made by Fahey at the David Johnstone public hearing June 17 that the attorney had heard Sorenson was accepting pay-offs from an abortion mill.

The grand jury asked for a transcript of the hearing, and a spokesman said that the jury will investigate the abortion mill matter at the next session July 11. No witnesses will be called, jury members said.

Landis Weaver, president of the county bar association, declared this week that he had received Sorenson's report and would refer the matter to the board of directors at their next meeting. He added that date for the meeting has not yet been set and that he

SANITATION DISTRICT TO RAISE TAX RATE

Operation cost of the new sewerage disposal plant here will make necessary an increase in the North San Mateo County Sanitation district tax rate, it was decided at the district meeting on Monday afternoon.

Final figures on the budget have not yet been developed but will probably be completed next week.

Other business Monday included:

1. Discussion of annexing 400 acres of Doelger land to district.

2. Approval of Westmoor school sanitary sewer maps.

3. Approval of Conti estate sewer maps.

4. Refusal to approve the sanitary sewer installation at Skyline and Ocean Shore highway.

5. Passage of a resolution stating that cost of a roadway from Lake Merced boulevard will be bourne jointly by Daly City and the district. The city has agreed to pay $1275 of the cost, while the district will pay $4895.

6. Advising of an ordinance making it a misdemeanor to throw refuse in manholes.

TWO APPLY FOR MISS DALY CITY

Two applications have been filed to date for the "Miss Daly City" contest to be held at the War Memorial building on July 9. Girls interested in entering the competition may still pick up application blanks, according to Robert Hunter, contest chairman.

The first entrant is Loretta Berg, 16, of 101 Westridge avenue. Loretta is a junior at Jefferson High school and is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Berg.

Eleanor Gandert, 18, entered the second application. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John W. Gandert and lives at 515 MacArthur drive, Broadmoor.

Blanks may be obtained at the Chamber of Commerce office at 6454 Mission street, or at THE RECORD, 3317 San Jose avenue.

Winner of the local competition will become the Daly City representative at the San Mateo County Fair and Floral Fiesta's "Dream Girl" beauty contest to be held July 21.

Contestants must be between the ages of 16 years old on or before July 28 and 26 years old on or before August 28. She must be

CITY EMPLOYEES PAY RAISE RETROACTIVE

City employee salary raises will be retroactive to July 1, it was announced today by City Manager Howard I. Stites. He explained that due to the delay in completing the budget, employees had questioned him on whether the raises would start July 1.

The city council will meet with the city department heads after the council meeting Tuesday night to discuss budget changes. It has been estimated that this year's budget will possibly increase the tax rate by a few cents.

Superintendent Explains High Rate of Jeff Teacher Turnover

The question of why so many teachers leave the Jefferson Elementary School district is partially answered in results of a survey released this week by Superintendent H. Z. Weibel.

A total of 46 instructors left the district during 1954-55, compared with 29 who departed the previous school year and 30 who left in 1952-53. Critics had claimed the high teacher "mortality" rate was due to dissatisfaction with the administration and conditions.

Weibel said that of this 46, nearly half (22) "may be said to have left because of family reasons." This 22 constituted 13 per cent of the 170 teachers employed in 54-55.

Weibel said that during 1954-55 the following factors accounted for teacher departure: Moving to better climate, 1; accepting position in S. F., 2; moving, 3; returning to her home, 1; maternity, 8; married, 2; returned to school, 2; husband transferred, 6; resignation requested, 5; accepted position elsewhere, 2; advancement, 1; demands of family, 3; personal circumstances, 2; opportunity for specialized field, 4; transportation problem, 2; dissatisfied, 2; going to Europe, 2.

Council Delays Grant Of Bar Dance Permit

The city council Monday night postponed decision on an application from a third local bar for a dance permit. Requests for permits for both the Hilltop Lodge and the Starway have been refused by the council in previous meetings.

Monday night's application was made by John P. Trimble, who will open "The Casbah,' 6192 Mission street, on July 19. Police Chief Roland Petrocchi and City Manager Howard Stites have recommended granting the request.

A motion by Councilman Del Wilson to grant application failed to receive a second, following which Councilman Micheal DeBernardi recommended that the council postpone action until next week.

In other action Monday night the council:

1. Granted application for four used car lots.

2. Granted application from the Colma-Vista Grande Aerie No. 1848 for a dance permit.

3. Approved recommendation by Stites that the city hire a parking meter collector-repairman at a $325-395 salary.

4. Set the city librarian salary at $358-436.

5. Authorized payment to C. Norman Peterson for $4,645.92 worth of work on Westlake reservoir No. 1 Booster Pumping plant.

BELLI RESIGNS BROADMOOR COP COMMISSION JOB

Joseph Belli Jr., member of the Broadmoor police commisison for two and a half years and one-time chairman of the group, submitted his resignation Wednesday.

Belli, who moved out of Broadmoor last March, said he was unable to secure suitable residence within the district and therefore, "it has become necessary for me to secure permanent residence within the city limits of Daly City."

Belli's position on the board, while a resident of Daly City, had been attacked by some Broadmoor police district property owners. William Cloonan, 111 Village Lane, had made formal protest to the commission.

Under district law, a commissioner must reside within the district.

In a letter to the district commission, Belli said, "It has been

High School OK's Bills From Smith

Jefferson High school district board of trustees and Engineer Edwin Smith came to an agreement Monday night on the engineer's bills for preliminary work at Westmoor school.

Smith, answering the board's inquiry about bills amounting to nearly $2000 for apparently unauthorized work, explained that he had incurred $4326.62 in out-of-pocket expenses on Westmoor work, while his charges to date had been $4475. "Actually, he said, "I'm working for nothing."

As to authorization on the work, Smith pointed out that, "There are numerous things the architect and the county school department ask us to do. Maybe I should have waited for written instructions from the board." He related, however, that this would have delayed the project.

Smith said his bills, amounting to $1775, included partial charge for the following: Preparing topographical map of the Westmoor site; establishing grading elevations for the contractor and street grades; report on sanitary sewers, drainage, lighting and streets.

The board had twice refused to pay the bills and asked Smith to explain them. After his report Monday, the trustees approved the charges.

OK Doelger Bus Subsidy; New Delay in Jitney Transit

Two new developments in the local transportation issue were announced this week.

1. The Public Utilities commission granted the request of Henry Doelger to continue subsidy of the Municipal bus No. 76 for another six months (until December 31.)

2. The Northgate Transit company (jitneys) will not begin operation until after the Fourth of July weekend. It had been announced earlier that operation would commence this Friday.

The No. 76 route will be decided next week, according to B. Poncetta, Doelger vice president.

"We expect to include part of Broadmoor," Poncetta said today.

It had been feared by Broadmoor residents that they would be left minus transportation, despite jitney operators' statement that they would apply for PUC approval to operate the jitneys in Broadmoor.

Delay of the jitney operation was found necessary at Monday night's council meeting when jitney owners failed to present a transportation agreement. While the council claimed that the jitney operators should have met with City Attorney Frank Blum to draw up the agreement, jitney representatives insisted that the council should have composed an ordinance before the meeting.

"I don't see how an agreement of this kind can be entered into without a written agreement," said City Manager Howard Stites.

"But we've submitted several proposals and they're always changed," Jitney Representative Paul O'Leary insisted.

It was concluded that the jitney operators would confer with Blum before the next council meeting.

Two suggestions were made as to the route of the jitneys.

The first, by Mayor Joseph J. Verducci, was the proposal that the route be lengthened to include those residents west of the Town and Country market.

Harry Bosbery's request was for the route to include the area north of Alemany.

Jeff Summer School Opens for 72 Pupils

The second annual Jefferson Elementary School district summer school began instruction Monday, with sessions scheduled daily until August 5.

Seventy-two Daly City pupils are being given concentrated instruction in reading, writing and arithmetic. While each of the three teachers instruct 24-25 children during the morning, as much individual attention as possible is provided by establishing the maximum class size at 13 children, according to Superintendent H. Z. Weibel. This is accomplished by having half of the pupils attend from 8 to 10 a.m. and the other half from 10:15 to

County Taxes Spiral To $1.63, Board Says

San Mateo county board of supervisors Tuesday adopted a record budget of $16,685,057 and estimated that the property tax rate would have to be boosted 25 cents to meet the needs.

County officials estimate the property tax rate, now $1.38 for $100 assessed valuation, will be raised to $1.63 per $100.

This would cost a homeowner whose property is assessed at $3000 approximately $7.50 more each year in county taxes.

An Honest Approach To Buying An Automobile

Our Business Is Selling Transportation

As your neighbor, we are not in the business of "pushing" some big deal on you. We are solely concerned with supplying you with the type of transportation you need and want. That's why on new cars we extend the factory warranty for a full year or 12,000 miles . . . give you a year's free lubrication service.

What About New Car Versus Used Car?

The question often arises in the minds of car owners, should I buy a used car, or a new car? The answer to this depends on many factors, and one of the most important of these is where you buy your used car.

There Is No Substitute For Your Experience

In answering this question, your own experience is the best guide. How many miles do you drive a year? What kind of driving do you do? What is your social position? Do you need your car to make a business impression?

For Some People, A Good Used Car Is An Economy

For example, assume you drive 5 to 7 thousand miles per year. Perhaps your car is used only to take children to school, to go shopping in. We have good used cars that will give you several years of satisfactory service of this type at far lower cost than a new car.

But For Some People, Even The Best Used Car Is A Waste

On the other hand, if you drive over 7 thousand miles per year, make long trips on the highway, must maintain a car in presentable shape because of business and social contacts, you need a Chrysler or Plymouth.

Here's The Best Way To Answer Your Problem

Drive to us, your neighborhood dealer, and talk over your situation. We don't have to try and sell you any particular car, because in new cars, the Plymouth-Chrysler line offers you a wide variety, and our used car stock, while limited, does have some fine selections, and in addition, they are cars we know about because they are not bought from some used car wholesaler, but traded in on new Chryslers or Plymouths.

Mayor Testifies In All Day Probe

Johnstone were removed.

Cancelled Raid

He said that he and Stites went to Redwood City to see Sorenson, who told them that a contemplated raid on an alleged bookmaking establishment in Daly City had to be cancelled because of Johnstone's previous investigation.

The mayor said that the council members were informed of the charges and discussed them at a meeting they held in the city hall and during an automobile ride to Belmont, where they went in a group to attend a meeting of the League of California Cities.

"There was some controversy among the councilmen as to the action to be taken," the mayor said. "We talked about suspending the officer rather than dismissing him and we talked about postponing decision until we could discuss the matter further. Under our charter, the city manager has the power to hire and fire, and, technically, Mr. Stites discharged Officer Johnstone. But it was six of one and half a dozen of the other: He did not want to take action without consulting the council, and the city council came to a unanimous decision to concur in the officer's discharge, so, you might say, we instructed the city manager to dismiss him."

Based On Letter

Under cross examination by Fahey, Mayor Verducci said that the decision to dismiss Johnstone was based on Sorenson's letter and the subsequent conversation with him and the recommendation of Police Chief Petrocchi.

He mentioned that Johnstone had admitted that he had received an order from the police chief asking him to investigate two telephones at 6207 Mission street and had taken five days to enter the premises and the mayor said that was too much time to take to make an investigation.

Johnstone, on direct examination during the afternoon, had detailed his activities day by day to maintain that he had committed no negligence.

He said the letter from Pacific Telephone and Telegraph Company, dated April 12, was given to him by Chief Petrocchi a few minutes before 9 a.m. April 13. It stated that two telephones had been installed at 6207 Mission street in the name of William Aslon or Alson and were being used extensively.

Doors Locked

Johnstone said he went to the address immediately, found the doors and windows locked and looked through a window with an open venetian blind that gave him a full view of the premises. He said he saw nothing that indicated anything illegal and returned to the police station. There, he said, he was asked by Lieutenant Roy Beecher to accompany him to Jefferson Union High school to investigate a report that girl students had been threatened with harm if they divulged information they had about narcotics use. He said he was at the school until noon and continued to work on that case until 1 p.m., when he went to lunch. Then, he said, he had to work on the teletype, reading and filing information it contained. At 2:30 p.m., he said, he called the two numbers listed in the phone company's letter, but received no answer.

Outlined Duties

The next day, Thursday, April 14, he had to appear in court, he stated, work on the teletype, then accompany Lt. Beecher to Crocker school to interrogate a juvenile. En route, he said, he told the lieutenant he wanted to check the Mission street address but was informed that the school investigation was more important. When he returned to the station, he had to do desk work, he said. Friday, he stated, he was confined to the office on desk work and participated in a raid on a bookmaking establishment. Saturday and Sunday were his days off.

On Monday, he said, he saw Dino Donati's truck and went to the pool room in the theater building where he found Donati and had him open the premises at 6207 Mission street.

On examination by City Attorney Blum, Johnstone declared he had not tried to telephone Donati because he did not want to tip him that the premises were under investigation, but had looked for him on the street and had watched for his truck parked near the theater. He said that if he had had an answer from one of the numbers listed by the telephone company, he would have hung up and gone there.

He admitted that he had not tried to locate William Aslon because he did not know him by that name, although, later, when Aslon was identified, he said he did know him by the name of Bill. He said he had to see Donati to find out who Aslon was.

Offers $100 For Phone

Mary Ben Allen, 29, of 6205-B Mission street, testified that in mid-February, Donati offered to pay her $100 for the use of her telephone, which she declined.

"He asked me how much rent I'm paying and I told him $40 a month. He asked me to let him have the apartment and I could move to Westlake and he would pay the difference between the $40 and the rent there. I said no."

Fahey asked her whether or not Donati had told her why he wanted the apartment and she said that he wanted to use it for his pinball machine servicing business.

Johnstone testified that Donati had told him that he planned to move his pinball business to 6207 Mission street to reduce his rent. The police officer added Donati had told him that the pool and billiard business had dropped off because his customers were going to the "top of the hill."

Fahey asked Verducci: "Did Sorenson tell you the name of the person or persons who had given him the information he had transmitted to Chief Petrocchi?"

The mayor replied: "No."

Q. "Did you ask Sorenson the source of the information he had?"

A. "Yes."

Q. "And did Sorenson refuse to give you the information?"

A. "He said they were informers."

Q. "Did you say: 'How can you refuse to cooperate with a police department consisting of a great number of men just because there is one man on there you think should not be there?"

A. "I didn't ask him that question."

Q. "Did you interrogate Sorenson in connection with evaluating this piece of paper he transmitted to your chief concerning the source of his information?"

A. "Yes."

Q. "What did he tell you concerning the source of the information?"

A. "That he couldn't reveal the source."

Q. "But he assured you the source was reliable?"

A. "Yes."

Q. "You assumed everything in the letter to be true?"

Believe D. A.

A. "I will say that when the district attorney conveys information to me I will believe in the veracity of his statement. I must assume that in his position as district attorney that he is in a position to judge whether or not the statements of the informer have value."

Sorenson himself, at the morning session, was asked by Fahey: "Who was your confidential informant?"

"No administrator can reveal that," he replied, and Chairman Bosbery ruled he need not answer.

Four city councilmen testified at the evening session of the hearing that they themselves did not make independent investigations of the charges against Johnstone but relied on Sorenson's letter and the reports of Verducci and Stites in concurring in the officer's dismissal.

The councilmen—Edward Dennis, Micheal DeBernardi, Del Wilson and Sanford Vickers—all testifed on questions by Fahey that they had never heard any derogatory reports concerning Johnstone or Donati prior to the receipt of the district attorney's letter.

Thomas Jenkins, attorney for Donati, told the hearing that the councilmen's statements represented character references for his client, and, therefore, he would not put Donati on the stand to defend himself.

Police Chief Petrocchi was questioned by Blum concerning a statement made by Sorenson that Johnstone had told him that he, Johnstone, had heard rumors in December, 1954, concerning a gambling enterprise in Daly City and had not reported it to his superior officers.

No Report

"To your knowledge," Blum asked Petrocchi, "did Johnstone make any report or statement to you of any gambling investigation in December or January?"

"I don't recall that he did," the chief answered.

Then Fahey queried: "It's true, is it not, chief, that you yourself were fully aware of those rumors?"

A. "That is correct."

Q. "And that at the time the rumors were prevalent you assigned one or two sergeants under your command to investigate the matter?"

A. "That is correct."

Q. "So in truth and in fact, there was no reason why he should report anything already known to you?"

A. "I was aware of the situation."

Fahey asked him whether or not he had received the letter from the telephone company dated April 12 and whether he had given it to Johnstone for investigation and he answered yes to both questions.

Knew Were Friendly

"Is it true," Fahey asked, "that at the time you laid this letter before Inspector Johnstone and requested he check it out that you knew Inspector Johnstone was on friendly terms with Dino Donati?"

A. "I did."

A. L. Lamport, inspector for the district attorney, told the hearing Wednesday evening that he himself first heard rumors on April 16 that the premises at 6207 Mission street might be in use for gambling and bookmaking. He said he reported the rumor to Sorenson and, on the afternoon of April 18, came to Daly City and informed Chief Petrocchi that Sorenson planned to make a primary investigation of the premises that night.

He said that when he and Sorenson came to Daly City on the night of April 18, they were surprised on two counts.

First, he said, neither he nor the district attorney was aware that Pacific Tel. & Tel. Co. had sent a letter to the Daly City police; no such letter was sent to the district attorney, he declared.

Secondly, he said, the two were surprised that Inspector Johnstone had already checked the premises on the afternoon of April 18.

Shows Phone Bill

Fahey introduced into evidence a telephone bill made out to William Aslon for service from April 6 to May 6 showing a charge of $7.10 and listing 29 message units and no toll calls.

He asked whether or not a bill for such a small charge and so few calls would indicate that the premises had been used for bookmaking. Lamport replied that he could not determine that.

Blum interjected that Johnstone had found the building empty on April 13 and the district attorney had visited it on April 18, so that the telephone bill could only have covered the time from April 6 to April 12.

Fahey commented that had the phones been used for bookmaking, the number of calls listed would have been far greater, and the bill was evidence that there had been no bookmaking there.

Fahey tried to introduce a copy of a letter he said he wrote to Sorenson demanding that the district attorney present his evidence against Johnstone to the grand jury or withdraw his charges in the letter to Chief Petrocchi.

Blum Objects

Blum objected, declaring the letter to be a summation of Fahey's arguments, and Bosbery sustained the objection.

Burress Karmel, city attorney of Burlingame, attended the hearing as counsel for the civil service board of review. Bosbery explained that Blum had withdrawn as counsel and the board felt it needed legal advice.

Blum stated that as city attorney he is authorized to appear as attorney for the city council and the board but added that as the board's attorney he would have to be impartial and as the city council's he would have to act as prosecutor and he did not want to undertake both tasks simultaneously.

The hearing Wednesday started at 10 a.m., recessed for lunch and dinner, and adjourned at 10 p.m. to Friday, July 15, at 5 p.m.

A SIGN OF THINGS TO COME?

Representatives of the Northgate Transit Co. who seek to operate jitneys, also known as limousines and stagecoaches and buses, in Daly City have proved themselves long on desire but short on results.

On two occasions now the jitneys had their opportunity to meet with the council with a concrete plan.

On both instances the jitneys, through misinformation or inexperience, failed to come prepared with the necessary facts and proposals. On one occasion they even failed to show up at a scheduled meeting.

The jitney group has had a majority decision from the council giving them approval to operate here. This verbal franchise came nearly two months ago.

The burden, then, was placed on this transit group to determine how their operation would be affected by the state public utilities commission and state board of equalization and what legal mechanics they had to meet.

Yet at both meetings the jitney group had to call on the city attorney for information. The attorney, naturally, was not prepared to answer all the questions involved in a problem as complex as granting a certificate to a here-to-fore virtually unknown form of transportation.

The Northgate Transit Co. should have had all the answers.

The jitneys boldly promised transportation in the unincorporated fringe areas. Yet now they must offer a "temporary" route which does not include this territory because to run in unincorporated territory they must have a certificate from the state public utilities commission.

They must have known of this restriction, yet they implied from the outset that Broadmoor and surrounding areas would be served.

We hope Northgate Transit Co.'s slipshod handling of this preliminary work isn't indicative of the service they will offer.

If it is, woe be it for Daly City's travelling citizens.

SF Man Dies In Daly City After Drinking Bout

54 Edgar Place, San Francisco.

After notifying police of McNaught's death, the two friends related the events preceeding the death.

During the morning the youths visited two bars, where, they said, McNaught drank four shots and six beers at the first bar and six shots and six beers at the second.

In the afternoon they recalled that they worked on Antonsen's car at 1126 Brunswick street, during which time McNaught and Antonsen drank another quart of beer.

Bumped Head

At 8:30 p.m. the men went for a ride in the car which stalled at Ocean and San Jose avenues. While pushing the car across the intersection, McNaught fell and bumped his head on the car.

According to the two men, McNaught said he wasn't hurt but only felt a slight headache.

Returning to the house at 1126 Brunswick street, the men again took to drinking, this time splitting a fifth of whiskey between them.

According to Antonsen, McNaught fell asleep about 11:30 p.m., and when Antonsen attempted to sleep beside him he couldn't because of the loud snoring.

Antonsen said that he returned the following morning from his home and when he and O'Brien attempted to wake McNaught they were unable to do so.

Both told officers that they thought McNaught had passed out because of the amount of liquor consumed the day before.

They said, however, that they feared he was dead when they could not revive him so walked up to the police station.

When officers arrived at the house, they found McNaught's body still on the bed. The room was "extremely untidy," and filled with empty or half-filled liquor glasses, according to officers.

Funeral services for McNaught will be held tomorrow (Saturday) at 9:30 a.m. at St. Anne's church. Interment will follow at Holy Cross cemetery.

McNaught is survived by his father, Robert P. McNaught, and three brothers and a sister.

TWO LOCAL EXPLORER SCOUTS TO LEAVE ON ALASKAN TRIP

Two Explorer scouts from this area are holding their breath until Tuesday when they will leave for Alaska with the Father Hubbard expedition.

Scott Parker and Bill Brown, both Jefferson Union High school sophomores, are among 14 Explorer scouts who will accompany the famed explorer priest on his trip.

The expedition will spend six weeks in Alaska. Their base camp will be Taku harbor, from whence they will make trips to outpost camps. Four cabin cruisers will be used by expedition members while in Alaska.

Scott, 14, son of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Parker of 719 Stewart avenue, Broadmoor, has had experience in camping which will aid him in the Alaskan trip. Camping trips have not been limited to his scout work, but he has camped out with his family many times during the past few years.

Envy Of Friends

While Scott was being interviewed at his home, his younger brother, Webb, and best friend, Bill Spray, looked on enviously. Scott's smallest brother, Stephen, 4, only peered out around the kitchen door.

"Exploring, photography and fishing" are what Scott plans on his trip. He added, however, that he also will have to take his turn at the cooking and other general work.

Interest in the out-of-doors shows in Scott's ambition, which is to eventually enter the field of forestry. He plans on attending San Mateo college and then continuing his education at one of the universities in Utah.

Scott, who holds seven merit badges, is being sponsored by Troop 129. Persons wishing to help defray his expenses may send contributions to Scott Parker fund, c/o Scoutmaster Herb Stettler, 523 Midway avenue, Colma.

Colma Explorer

The other local Explorer who will accompany Father Hubbard is Bill Brown, also 14, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harold R. Brown of Colma. TheBrowns live at 464 C street. They have one other child, Betty, 13.

The "outdoor adventure" was named by Bill as what he most anticipates on the trip. He added, however, that he also is looking forward to fishing.

Bill wants to be an air force mechanic when he finishes school, and right now he is a handy man to have around the house, according to his mother.

The boy's chief interests are his scouting work, archery, model airplane hobby and "making things."

Bill's merit badges include swimming, citizenship in the home, cycling, aviation, home repairs, cooking, carpentry and pioneering, all of which help prepare him for his approaching trip.

Letters To The Editor

Teen Club Protests

Dear Editor:

We of the Misbe-Haven Teen club would like to protest to a news article which appeared in last week's paper.

This item stated that a certain boy received liquor at our dance, Saturday, June 18. This is a statement of questionable truth. Perhaps the boy sneaked the liquor into the dance on his own, but your misleading statement implies that we of the teen club supplied the alcohol. This is a great fallacy; we try to keep all people who have been drinking out of our activities. This, however, is a very big job because we can't search everyone.

We of the teen club believe that it isn't our fault that a few characters insist on causing unfavorable publicity, and making trouble for those who would like to enjoy themselves. In our opinion it is the responsibility of the parents to see that their chlidren do not behave in this manner.

Since the inauguration of the teen club almost three years ago, we have tried to provide clean and wholesome activities. Previous to that time there was no decent place where all teen-agers could gather. Our club has tried to provide the place and the activities for the youth of our community. We think we have accomplished our aim. With the help of the teen-agers and their parents, we can live up to the good name we have established.

Sincerely,
Executive Board
Misbe-Haven
Teen Club

EDITOR'S NOTE: The article referred to in the above letter stated that the boy told Police Officer Art Linhares that he had obtained the liquor from "six Balboa High school boys in the men's washroom." There was no intent to imply that the Misbe-Haven teen club, as such, furnishes liquor at their dances.

Two For Tonight

By Leonore Brewer

The next film to play at Leow's Warfield will be "The Cobweb," based on William Gibson's best-seller about life in a mental hospital, where it is a tossup as to who is in greater need of psychiatric help, the patients or the staff. The staff comes out just a jot ahead-after all, in addition to their personal difficulties they also have the patients' problems to worry about.

Photographed in CinemaScope and Eastman Color, "Cobweb" has an impressive cast headed by Charles Boyer and Richard Widmark as medical director and assistant medical director respectively, whose differences of opinion as to policy provide the basic problem of the story. Further complications are created by Widmark's interest in Lauren Bacall, a hospital employee, and his increasing discontent with his marriage to Gloria Grahame. The latter resents being shut out of her husband's professional life and contributes to the cobweb of human relationship by becoming mildly interested in Boyer.

When Lauren Bacall promotes a plan to provide new drapes for the patients' livingroom by means of a group project, principally to aid John Kerr to make his adjustment to normal life, all these cross-currents of human emotions create a whirlpool into which the entire hospital is drawn. Rapidly, the above named principals, together with Lillian Gish as the watchdog of the hospital treasury, are embroiled in a bitter battle in which each uses the drapes (by this time there are three sets) to express his dissatisfaction with the status quo.

It is seldom that the film version of a novel is as faithful to the original as is "Cobweb." It follows the story very closely but carefully avoids the situations which would have provoked censorship difficulties. A few changes prevent the worth of an adult film from being obscured by lurid billing.

Despite its setting "Cobweb" is not without humor and certainly the hospital, aptly named The Castle, is not the depressing institution customarily pictured. This hospital is reminiscent of an exclusive resort hotel, with patients coming and going pretty much as they please. Instead of ironclad restrictions, their actions are governed by various patient-committees, having the same amusing difficulties and squabbles experienced by committees on the outside.

We can remember an old lady of our acquaintance who dearly loved looking for a moral in every movie. The moral of "Cobweb" is: better keep your neuroses and psychoses to yourself, you're not going to be able to afford to indulge them at The Castle.

Safety News

"The Fourth of July is Independence Day, but the driver who gets too independent on the road may do his celebrating in jail.

This warning was given to Daly City motorists today by Chief R. A. Petrocchi who is making an all-out effort to see that traffic accidents will not mar this year's Independence Day celebration.

The Daly City Police Department and the National Safety Council are sponsoring a safe vacation program during July, Chief Petrocchi said. This program deserves the support of all citizens, and we can show our cooperation right at the start by observing the rules of safe and sane driving over the weekend of the Fourth.

An aggressively independent attitude on the part of drivers is bound to lead to accidents, Chief Petrocchi said. He pointed out that drivers must share the road with all other drivers and with pedestrians, and if they've too insistent on their rights or carry a chip on the shoulder most of the time, they're inviting trouble.

"Make courtesy your code of the road," Chief Petrocchi urged. "You'll find that you'll be much more relaxed when your trip is over, and you'll have a much better time.

"And it may surprise you to find, he added, that other drivers will return your courtesy almost every time."

The chief also warned against trying to cover too many miles in too short a time and driving at speeds to fast for conditions. He gave the following tips for a safe trip.

1. Don't try to cover too many miles. 2. Be prepared for heavy holiday traffic. 3. Get an early start, pause for rest occasionally. 4. Don't speed. 5. Don't drink before driving. 6. Remember that the application of common courtesy to traffic situations will prevent many accidents.

Chief Petrocchi said it would be a good idea for drivers to use the July slogan, "Drive to Arrive Alive-Slow Down and Live, at all times.

DC STEWARD NAMED AFL-OWNER REFEREE

Donald S. Phelps, 438 Willits street, has been named referee of the interim agreement between the AFL Marine Cooks and Stewards and West Coast shipowners. Phelps is senior port steward of the Military Sea Transport Service's supply division in San Francisco.

In his new capacity, Phelps will investigate and rule on any complaints that union members are being discriminated against because of race, color or union affiliation.

Phelps, 47, has been in the maritime industry for 31 years, the last 20 in government service. In 1940 he was the first Negro ever to be named chief steward of a west coast passenger liner. Three years later he became the first Negro ever chosen as port steward in San Francisco.

NEW JUNIOR CDA HAS INITIATION

Thirty-three girls were initiated into the newly formed Court St. Mary's Junior Catholic Daughters of America in ceremonies at Our Lady of Perpetual Help church last Thursday.

Officers for the group also were installed, according to Maridolores Hughes, junior court reporter.

Court Mt. Carmel members officiated at the ceremonies. Honored guests were Mrs. C. M. Weckerle, state grand regent; Mrs. M. Clark, Court St. Mary's 1155 grand regent; and Mrs. C. Fritzsimons, junior archdiocesan chairman.

Village Notes

By Gwin Mitchell

Arrivals—A whole new crowd has come along to live in the Village. Joan Carolyn McKay is now living on Nimitz drive with Marge and Jim and big brother Jimmy, along with the usual dozens of diapers and baby bottles that keep a 6 lb. 8 oz. small girl happy. Up on the hill. Thornhill has a new resident—Robert Jeffrey Herbert, who will be company for sister Christine, and is a nice 7 lb. 11 oz. armful for parents Nettie and Robert to hold. Sarah and Morris Krow over on Sweetwood have made it a threesome, with 7 lb. 12 oz. Deborah joining brother Jeffrey and sister Barbara, and two first babies are making two families very happy indeed. Victoria Grace is the pride and joy of 87th street's Phil and Vivian Nagle, all 6 lbs. and 4 oz. of her, and Elisa Ann Reaser is a new Larchmont resident, keeping company with Helen and Frank, who are busy being new parents to the 7 lbs. 5 oz. young lady.

Lucky Seven—Susan Barnett's latest birthday! She was the youngest of three members of her family to have birthdays, one after the other. Her party was on Friday, with Susan Helmer, Paula Baumgartner, Deborah and Kathy Leech ,Virginia Jones, Jeanette Harrison, Linda and Sandra Scafidi, Joan Alexander, Karen Mancuso and sister Nancy Barnett as guests. Then her grandfather, Peter Kostecki, had a birthday party of his own on Saturday, with 20 guests, followed by Susan's mother, Patricia, with her birthday party on Sunday, with 16 guests! The Barnett house, on Stewart, was one busy place, that's for sure!

Just to make sure that the other side of Stewart avenue was not left out in the cold, Peter Alexander did his part by turning three years old and having a party of his own. Michael Northrup, Mario Rizzo, Kay Parry, Sandy Scafidi and sister Joan Alexander all came around to share the fun and cake and ice cream.

There's been a great deal written about the Festival of Faiths and what a wonderful and moving gathering it was, but maybe you didn't know that Gilman drive's Paul Elliott was one of the choir of 1500 and that our own pastor, Rev. John A. Glasse, walked in the procession of ministers.

There's a group of Broadmoor wives who have been members of a club for some years now, but they still haven't found a name, in spite of regular meetings, projects, etc! Anyhow, they did have a special dinner party at the Iron Horse down on Maiden Lane, with husbands invited as guests. Katie and Ray Flanagan, Gail and Wes Foster, Doris and Leon Johnson, Kay and Ray Logan, Wilma and Ted McKee and Harriet and Dick Buhman were all in on the fun.

Jim and Sabina Fairbanks had a particularly nice 25th anniversary not so long ago, when Charlotte and Rex Sprulell, Julia and John Ruud, Eunice and George Irvine and Rev. and Mrs. John Glasse paid a surprise visit to the Fairbanks home on Garden Lane, bringing cake and all the fixings for a very special anniversary party. And the evening before that, Jim and Sabina had gone out for dinner at the Redwood Rood and to see "The Fifth Season," so theirs was a very full and happy celebration of twenty-five good years.

Speaking of anniversaries, best wishes are also due Gert and Larry Green, long-time Manila residents, who have reached number 19th year in their busy, happy life together.

Our friend and fellow-scribe, Verna Duste, has been scooting around in her usual enthusiastic way lately, with many projects on hand. First there was the cake to bake for her father's birthday, complete with ship decorations, as he was once a sailor. Then came two full weeks of assisting in the kindergarten vacation Bible school, in the midst of which came the sudden announcement that the Ferguson Mitchells (of Washington street) were being transferred to Ogdensburg, New York, for two years. So Verna and Ray joined forces with Bunny and Ed Gallant, Louise and Dan Danforth, Barbara and LeRoy Subke and Gloria and Frank Dalzelle to give the Mitchells a going-away party par excellence. What next, Mrs. D?

Speaking of going away, there's been an exodus of Village friends and residents lately that has assumed major proportions. Foothill's Frances and Alec Land plan on becoming Burlingame residents soon, and the Carl Edneys have moved down to San Bruno. The Army issued orders (a habit it has!) which sent Chuck and Shirley Nichols and their four children back to Ft. Knox, Kentucky. Jane and Mel Hahn are now the owners of the Don Motel in San Luis Obispo, and the Wesley Fausts are calling Seattle home, courtesy of the Shell Oil Company.

After all the going-away news, we were glad to hear that Marie Kleppe is back from a month at Abilene, Texas, where she was visiting her sister, Ida Pope. Ida visited here last August, but her godchild, Sandra, hadn't appeared on the scene at the time, so Marie decided it was high time the two met, and with sister Lynn along too, young Sandra took her first long journey. Marie thinks Texas is wonderful, including the thunderstorms, and had a wonderful time. It was nice to have a family gabfest, which doesn't happen often, since Marie has one sister in South America and one in Canada, as well as Ida down in Texas and her father and brother in England, to say nothing of the in-laws in Norway! United Nations of Midway!

Some of us were particularly shocked and sad to read about the death of Dr. Fred Kreutzer in that automobile accident. He and wife Margie, used to live on Sweetwood, and were charter—and popular—members of the Village Play School when it began four years ago.

Congratulations are due Godfrey Woods, past commander of Lake Merced Post 9921 VFW, who is now San Mateo County Council Commander. Wife Anita is also a post commander of the 9921 Auxiliary and joined her husband as a delegate to the State VFW encampment at Sacramento.

Maddux Memo: Helen Baumgartner has been a busy gal lately. She entertained the Benjamin Franklin School room mothers—Sydney Hess, Betty Christman, Jean Hink, Elvira Nafe, Esther Klevesahl and Marguerite Smith, and gave a lunch for her father A. W. Fox and his wife. Her sister and husband, Mr. and Mrs. C. Sowers, were there also, as were their daughters Dorothy and Terry. Mrs. Ellie Tarot, Dr. George Tarot and Jeanie Tarot completed the guest list. Across and down the street, Gin and Roy Smith enjoyed a month's visit from Gin's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Muster, here from Montana. Gin's brother, Bill, came out from Chicago, where he works for Montgomery Ward, to make it a real family get-together.

A couple of fathers had birthdays not too long ago. Bud Hink (Maddux) was given a Very Special Family Party, complete with hats, balloons and favors, and Vin Murphy (Midway) had a progressive sort of birthday dinner which began at the Roz Hiltons' and ended at the Robert Terrys on one evening, and continued at the John Taylors the next night!

Not to be outdone by the fathers, Mark Lamentia celebrated his First Birthday over on Midway, with grandparents Mr. and Mrs. Tim Bieberdorf, aunt Imogene Seaberg and uncle Paul Bieberdorf all in proud attendance, to say nothing of Mark's brother Stevie! Up on Larchmont, Jeffrey Kearney marked off that all-important sixth birthday, with Karen and Carol Ford, Ronny and Denny Smith, Rex Arnott, Ricky and Roy Diedricksen, Jan and Rarris Smotherman, Gregory Feist, Ray Mathes and sister Susan Kearney sharing his day with him.

Bette and Till Ghiotti took four days off for themselves not long ago and traveled north through the redwoods and to Sacramento—sort of a vacation test-trip!

We were sorry to hear that some of the Villagers have been hospitalized lately. Renata Costa is recovering from a serious back operation, and Mrs. Wayne Atwood, Sr. has been quite ill. We hope things are brighter for them by now, and that they will soon be well again.

John and Betty Richardson and son Jack, South Mayfair residents, just recently came home from a vacation trip to Montana and Washington. They drove and thoroughly enjoyed some beautiful scenery, as it was wild flower time, though there was a good deal of rain involved too! In Long Beach, Washington, they visited John's parents, Mr. and Mrs. T. D. Richardson and went to Davenport, Washington, to see Betty's parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Anglemyer.

We keep hoping that we'll see Police Matrons Dot Hazen and Vi Murphy in those new tailormade uniforms we've heard about!

A JOINT TOAST on their wedding day is raised by Mr. and Mrs. John Kennedy who were married recently at the Swedenborgian church in San Francisco. The bride is the former Barbara Lind, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. G. Lind of Daly City. The groom is the son of Local Fire Chief and Mrs. Elmer Kennedy. The couple plan to live in San Francisco upon their return from a honeymoon.

Barbara Lind Weds John Kennedy In Recent Rites

Mr. and Mrs. John Kennedy (Barbara Lind) plan on living in San Francisco upon their return from a honeymoon at Lake Tahoe.

The young couple were married at the Swedenborgian church in San Francisco on June 18. Reverend Othmar Tobisch officiated at the ceremonies.

The bride, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer G. Lind, is a 1954 graduate of Jefferson High school. She is now a sophmore at San Francisco State college.

Her husband is the son of Fire Chief and Mrs. Elmer Kennedy. John is also a Jeff graduate and is now attending San Francisco State college after a two-year stint in the army. Before entering the army he was a student at City college where he was a member of Alpha Sigma Delta.

The new Mrs. Kennedy wore a ballerina length tulle bouffant gown for her wedding. The dress was fashioned with a lace bodice, high neckline and elbow length sleeves.

She carried an old-fashioned bouquet of white carnations and wore a fingertip veil.

Miss Jane Kennedy, the groom's sister, was the maid of honor while Lynette Kerr was the bridesmaid. Both wore gowns of lavender chiffon with bodices of deep purple and white. They carried small white baskets of flowers and wore matching flowered headbands.

Serving as best man for the groom was Leslie Nicolini. Ushers were Don Groefer and Rodney Holdredge.

The bride's mother wore a sheath dress of ice blue taffeta. Her hat and accessories matched her dress.

Mrs. Kennedy's gown was of silver grey and was designed with an eton jacket. She wore a large black straw hat and black accessories.

A reception, following the wedding, was held at the home of the bride's parents, 37 Lake Forest drive.

Woodrow Wilson School Holds Promotion Parties

Promotion parties for all classes were held last week at Woodrow Wilson school under the sponsorship of the PTA. Room mothers served as hostesses.

Publicity Chairman Enid Williams reports that the most outstanding room was that of Miss Sharp's second grade where children enjoyed an old-fashioned bubble blowing party. They used spools for bubble pipes.

Mrs. Pless' third grade featured attractive colored place mats at each desk, while other classes held amateur hours, played games and sang.

Ice cream and home made cookies were served in each room.

DUMPS GARBAGE IN '54; FORFEITS $50

A San Francisco man who was arrested for dumping garbage in October, 1954, finally ran into the clutches of the law this week.

Meredith Withers, 63 Navy road, was charged with dumping garbage in Colma on October 21, 1954.

A warrant was issued for him to appear in municipal court, but he was nowhere to be found.

Last week police brought Withers into municipal court, where he posted $50 bail. The amount was forfeited to the court Tuesday when Withers failed to appear.

Diane Reuling Of Parkmerced Weds Charles Ham

By Carol Lou Hayes

An afternoon ceremony Saturday in St. Francis church united in marriage Miss Diane Reuling of Parkmerced and Charles Ham of Los Angeles. The Rev. Millard Streator conducted the double ring ceremony in a setting of white flowers.

The bride's father, Dr. James R. Reuling of New York, gave her in marriage. He is speaker of the house of delegates of the American Medical Association.

Mrs. Alfred Blackman, the former Jeanne Kragh of Parkmerced, was her sister's matron of honor. Mrs. Frank Olson of 156 Gonzalez drive and Miss Irene Alexander of Oakland were the bridesmaids.

Brown Kinschloe of Elkhart, Indiana, was best man, while Leroy Bartelle and Warren Miller, both of Los Angeles, ushered.

The tall, brunette bride was lovely in a white lace gown styled along princess lines. The bodice, fashioned with a bateau neckline, had long sleeves. A white orchid was set in fleur de lis for her bouquet, and her only jewelry was a string of pearls, a wedding gift from the bridegroom. From a Grecian crown fell her filmy fingertip veil.

As a touch of sentiment, Miss Reuling carried as her traditional "something old" an exquisite handkerchief which had belonged to her great-grandmother.

Shades of green prevailed in the feminine attendants' costumes. They were gowned alike in cocktail-length frocks of crystallette, with accordion-pleated panels down the front, and wore gold lace crowns and mitts.

Mrs. Blackman was in moss green and carried a bouquet of yellow carnations, while the bridesmaids wore a lime shade and carried gold bouquets.

Mothers of the bridal pair wore white orchid corsages. Mrs. Dorothy P. Maething of 125 Cambon drive, the bride's mother, chose navy blue taffeta trimmed in white gathered net. Mrs. Mabel Ham of Los Angeles, the birdegroom's mother, was in a pink ribbon-knit gown.

A reception followed at the Blackman home in Forest Hills. A three-tiered wedding cake was served with champagne.

YOUTH, 18, PLEADS GUILTY TO ILLEGAL LIQUOR POSSESSION

An 18-year-old San Francisco youth pleaded guilty Tuesday in Municipal court to a charge of illegal possession of liquor.

Gray E. Atwood, 465 Alvarado street, San Francisco, was arrested Friday night by local police when he was seen with a vodka bottle in his possession on Flournoy and Mission streets here.

Officers said that they first saw the youth while he was talking to some persons in a parked car. Seeing the police, the boy apparently tried to ditch the bottle into the gutter.

While being taken to the city jail in a squad car, Officer Robert Crooker saw the youth attempt to hide a dagger-type knife under the front seat. Crooker waited until the youth had been taken into the police department before returning to the car where he found the knife.

The youth claimed he used the knife for self-protection.

Because the knife was only a bit under five inches in length, officers could not bring charges against Atwood for possesion of the knife. A knife must be five inches long before charges can be brought.

Atwood was sentenced to ten days in the county jail suspended on condition that he pay a $100 fine. He was granted a ten-day stay of execution.

RESIDENTS OBJECT TO NO OVERNIGHT PARKING ORDINANCE

Objections to the Daly City no-overnight parking ordinance were voiced Monday night at the city council meeting.

The subject was first brought to the council's attention when Lois Donley of 1258 Brunswick street asked why the ordinance was limited to only three blocks.

"We pay taxes to park in front of our houses," she declared.

City Attorney Frank Blum objected, explaining that the ordinance included all of Daly City and is not limited to only three blocks.

Next person to object to the ordinance was Ricco Lagomarsino.

"I can't hold tenants in my two apartments on Mission street because of the tags," Lagomarsino insisted.

"Why didn't you build garages on those apartments?" asked Councilman Del Wilson.

Lagomarsino replied that ten years ago when the apartments were built, garages weren't necessary.

Discussion ended with the council referring the matter to City Manager Howard Stites.

Install Catholic Women In Rites at Stonestown

Impressive ceremonies completed the installation of newly elected officers of Our Lady of Mercy Parish Westlake Catholic Women recently at Rickey's Red Chimney in Stonestown.

Receiving the president's gavel at the communion breakfast rites was Mrs. Edward Molkenbuhr, who will fill the position held by Mrs. Casimir Norton.

Seated as the speakers' table with Mrs. Norton were Mrs. E. H. Ewing, chairman of the day, Mrs. Joseph McCarthy, president of the National Council of Catholic Women, and Father Richard Power, Mercy church pastor.

In handing over the gavel to the new president, Mrs. Norton cited the three rules which governed her office—aim, desire and accomplishment.

To show appreciation of her service to the newly-formed parish, Mrs. Molkenbuhr presented the outgoing president with a silver engraved tray on behalf of the Westlake Catholic Women.

The honored guest, Mrs. McCarthy, pinned an "Our Lady of Mercy" medal on each new officer upon installation.

Those installed along with the president included: Mrs. James Duryea, executive vice president; Mrs. Ernest Cookston, recording secretary; Mrs. John Buckley Jr., corresponding secretary; Mrs. Joseph Shea, treasurer; Mrs. Lawrence McDonnell, director, spiritual activities; Mrs. Walter McElroy, director, social activities; Mrs. John Murphy, director, youth activities; Mrs. Jeremiah Mahoney, director, census; Mrs. Thomas Daly, representative to the National Council of Catholic Women; Mrs. Warren Francis McHugh, historian; and Mrs. Victor Scatena, public relations.

An additional highlight was presentation of a spiritual bouquet and sterling silver flatware honoring Father Power on his 25th anniversary of his ordination to the Catholic priesthood. The gift was given by the Westlake Catholic Women.

The carefully selected summer staff is composed of Wallace Odd, teacher-in-charge; Mrs. Emma Hammond and Mrs. Ruth Travis.

Fire Chief Warns Of Blasting Cap Threat

"Help keep our children safe. Protect them from blasting cap injuries," is the warning sounded today by Fire Chief Elmer Kennedy. Last year, he reports, a number of children were severely injured in these mishaps.

The chief points out that across the state a number of construction projects are in full swing. Dynamite will be needed for the excavation work. Farmers will also use dynamite to get rid of stumps, dig ditches and blast boulders. To detonate the dynamite both the construction crews and the farmer will be using blasting caps. If the caps are carelessly left around children may find them and play with them. Possible results are a blinded, maimed or dead boy or girl.

Blasting caps are small aluminum or copper cylinders about one quarter of an inch in diameter and range from one and a half to five inches in length. They are loaded with a powerful explosive, Chief Kennedy explained. There are two types. One has an open end and is fired from a fuse. The other type has two wires extending from one end and is fired by electrical current. Either kind, if struck with a hammer or rock or thrown into a fire may explode and injure anyone standing within 200 feet.

Parents, teachers and youth leaders are urged to remind youngsters continually of the danger of blasting caps. If children find anything resembling the highly explosive metal cylinders they should shun them as they would a rattle snake, the chief warns, and report their findings immediately to him or some other law enforcement officer.

TV and Radio

By Mona Baker

PRESS ROOM; UNITED NATIONS . . . Amid the clatter of teletypes and typewriters, the chatter of foreign tongues, Japanese messenger girls in their vivid kimonis, newsmen and women from all corners of the globe, we sat down to write our column on one of the typewriters provided for the accredited press.

It has been an exciting week . . . an inspiring one, with a jumble of impressions running through our mind. One fact does stand out clearly though . . . once again we are impressed with the tremendous importance of television on such a memorable occasion. We had only to witness each day the long line of people waiting patiently since early morning on afternoon for a ticket for one of the sessions, and then to reach the desk and see a sign reading "no more tickets for today." However, they could step into the theatre in the Veterans Auditorium and see projected on a giant screen, the entire proceedings on television.

It is true that inside the Opera House one could see the beautiful grey carpeted stage with its background of the colorful flags of sixty nations, flanked on either side by the sky-blue United Nations flag . . . the distinguished delegates seated in their sections indicated by a flag with their country's name on it. It was truly an impressive and inspiring sight! But it was left for television to bring to the viewers those close-ups that showed the expression on the speakers' faces . . . the dramatic reactions of the attentive delegates.

Other impressions gathered include standing on the Opera House steps and watching limousines with small blue United Nations flags on the fenders driving up and discharging distinguished and colorful delegates such as the stately United Nations members from Yemen attired in native dress or the delegates from India accompanied by their lovely wives in colorful saris . . . the lobby of the Opera House bustling with people . . . rounding the corner and being confronted by television technicians busy stringing cables up the sides of the building for the telecasts . . . the boxes in the Opera House filled not with lovely ladies in evening dress, but television cameras, radio microphones, movie and news cameras . . . two receptions for the press at the San Francisco Press and Union club which included one given by city officials . . . among the guests, lovely Peggy Lee, famous television and movie star.

The successful coverage of such a great occasion requires the combined efforts of many many people. Famous newsmen, television and radio commentators came from all parts of the United States and even the world. The press, television and radio are to be congratulated for bringing us such a thorough coverage of this great historical event. It was truly a privilege to be a part of it.

How can we do it? Read this and you'll see. It's a way...

YOU CAN COME OUT WAY AHEAD, TOO!

We Ford Dealers are really going to s-t-r-e-t-c-h our trade-in allowances in this period so we can Stretch the Lead.

Broadmoor Summer Rec. Program To Begin Tuesday

The Broadmoor summer recreation program will start Tuesday under the guidance of Robert Lincoln, who was chosen from three applicants at Monday night's meeting of the Broadmoor Property Owners association.

Lincoln is a Westlake resident and has had previous recreation experience, according to Association President Jack Baker. The new director did his practice teaching at Jefferson High school and is a graduate of San Francisco State college.

The summer program will include eight groups from five to 12 years of age. It will be held Monday through Friday, 10 a.m. to 5 p.m. at Garden Village school.

Other business at Monday's meeting included naming Ross Hilton, 704 Maddux drive, to the position of salaried bookkeeper and administrative assistant. Hilton's job is effective as of Friday.

The next regular meeting of the association is July 14.

Kane Checks Kiwanis For OLPH Debut Win

OLPH's little Billy Kane knuckled down to notch a three-hit, 11-1, win over SSF Kiwanis Saturday in opening day action in the Daly City Little league.

Kane struck out eight batters, walked only two.

Lowell Creighton Sr's. OLPH nine collected nine singles.

Golfer Eliminated

Wayne Giusti, 14, of Daly City, was eliminated in the San Francisco Jr. Golf tournament play Tuesday, as he was edged, 4 and 3, by Don Johnson.

Young Giusti qualified at the Lincoln park Monday with a 79.

Lagomarsino Realty retained its undefeated mark and leadership in Daly City Recreation Softball league Monday with a 3-2 win over a revived Broadmoor Police nine.

The contest was tied 2-2 at the end of seven innings. Lagomarsino punched across the winning tally in the eighth.

Victorious pitcher Vic Drago had clear sailing except for his opponent on the mound, Mike Gonzales, who slammed out a homer and a triple to bat in the losers' only runs.

In the second game Monday at Jefferson diamond Ralph's Cleaners belted DC Drugs, 14-5. It was close up until the sixth, when Ralph's held only a one run advantage, but the cleaners belted the ball at random after that to win going away. Slow-baller Mike Orlich twirled Ralph's victory, striking out five batters. The win was Ralph's fourth straight and handed DC Drugs their first loss, not counting their forfeit defeat. Ralph's moved into a tie for second with Colma Firemen on the basis of the win.

In Tuesday action Eagles came from behind to beat DC Fire department, 7-6, at Marchbanks.

The outcome was decided when Johnny Lawler blasted a line drive homer over the left fielder's head with one man aboard.

Wednesday night at Jefferson Colma fire department overcame a one-run deficit to down Shannon Hardware, 12-7. The firemen got in their big scoring licks in the sixth frame when Gus Pedemonte lofted a triple with the bags loaded. Izzy Galente and Joe Fisher homered for the Shannon nine.

Next week there are doubleheaders scheduled Tuesday and Wednesday nights.

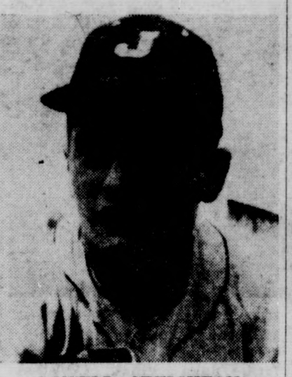
SF Seals Sign Creighton

Lowell Creighton, 18-year-old pitching control artist from Jefferson High school, has been signed to a one-year contract by the San Francisco Seals.

Terms of the contract were not disclosed. It was learned, however, that the figure was probably well under $10,000.



LOWELL CREIGHTON ... Surprise Seal Starter

Creighton will probably be farmed out to either Visalia in the Class C California league, or Tri-City in the Class B Northwest league.

Creighton, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lowell Creighton Sr., 97 Teresa, Daly City, was graduated from Jefferson in June.

Al Fioresi, SF Seal Scout, revealed yesterday that Creighton will be given a starting assignment Sunday when the Seals meet the PCL leader San Diego.

Earlier it was believed that Creighton would be farmed out, but the Seals have cut their roster by one pitcher to make room for Creighton on the 21-player team.

Fioresi said Creighton would start one of the two games in Sunday's doubleheader at Seals Stadium. Starting time for the first contest is 1:30 p.m.

"If he shows us anything it'll mean a lot to us and a lot to him too," the scout said.

In three years of varsity baseball competition, the 5' 11", 185 pound youngster was twice named to the All- PAL lineup.

Over an eight-year span including high school and recreation league play Creighton won 172 games, lost only 45. He was credited with five no-hit, no-run performances, 20 one-hitters and 25 two-hitters.

The big right-hander's chief asset is his amazing control. In his three years of PAL play, he was the most feared pitcher in the league—the one prep batters least liked to hit against.

Seal Scout Al Fioresi signed Creighton. After the one-year contract period is up, Creighton will negotiate for salary.

Creighton reported for duty with the Seals Tuesday night.

Good Abalone Catch

Fred Bricker Sr., 313 Peoria, along with his sons Charles and William and grandson Gene Paccelli, came back with 18 pounds of fish and 20 abalone in a recent outing at Fort Bragg.

Last week Bricker Sr. spent several days sturgeon fishing out of Sacramento.

New Assistant Grid Coach Named at Jeff

Frank Pustay of Oakland, former grid star at University of Cincinnati, will act as assistant football coach at Jefferson High school next year.

The high school board of trustees approved Pustay's contract at their meeting Monday night.

Pustay will assist Coach Joe McGrath with the varsity team, taking over the post formerly held by Tony Giammona. Giammona has been named to head the frosh-soph football club.

Ernie Ribera, who acted as frosh-soph tutor last year, will handle the Jefferson cross-country team.

Pustay played end and guard at U of C under Hunk Anderson.

The new coach will also act as mathematics instructor.

Lake Merced Scouts Open Summer Camp

More than 130 Boy Scouts from the Lake Merced District left Sunday for the rugged outdoor country of Camp Royaneh near Cazadero, the summer camp of the S.F. Scout Council.

The Lake Merced Scouts will be in the first group of Scouts to pitch tents at camp Royaneh this summer.

Royaneh officially opens for summer camping for San Francisco Scouts from June 26 to August 13.

With the addition of 57 new acres of land this year, Camp Royaneh has expanded its facilities, developing the new acreage into a modern Troop camp site. New buildings have also been constructed at the camp by large work parties of volunteers.

The summer activities at the camp centers around swimming, horseback riding, canoeing and boating, fishing, barbecues, campfire programs with group singing, and day and over night hikes.

Boy Scout Troops attending from the Lake Merced District are:

Troop 88, sponsored by the Forest Hill Association, 381 Magellan avenue: Troop 340, sponsored by the Lake Merced Parents' Club, 19 Rivae avenue; Troop 26, sponsored by Homewood Terrace Child Care Service, 11 Homewood Terrace; Troop 50, sponsored by Men's Fellowship of Pilgrim Congregational Community Center, 400 Randolph street; Troop 345, sponsored by West of Twin Peaks Lions club, 156 West Portal; Troop 245, sponsored by Vista Grande avenue Christian church, 101 Vista Grande avenue, Daly City.

Broadmoor Police Give Jitney Service

The jitneys have nothing on the Broadmoor police department.

Kids in Westlake and Broadmoor who started the elementary school summer session this week at Woodrow Wilson school on Miriam street were left high and dry transportation-wise, since the school buses do not run in the summer.

The cops came to the rescue, with a patrol car, volunteering to bring the children to school in the morning and transport them home in the evening.

The summer school is held for children from third to seventh grades who fell behind in their work because of prolonged absence or transfer from another school.

COPS AREN'T FOOLED BY VISITOR'S CLAIM

Local police weren't fooled Sunday night when a visitor from Alameda insisted that he was still in his home town.

George E. Irwin, 54, of 1420 Santa Clara avenue, Alameda, was escorted to the city jail by Officers George Brooks and Robert Crooker despite his plea that he couldn't be arrested because he was in Alameda.

The officers spotted Irwin in his car at Park Plaza drive and South Mayfair avenue and stopped to investigate his condition. They ignored Irwin's statement, avoided his wild punches and escorted him to the city jail where he was charged with being drunk in and about an automobile.

Irwin was released on $50 cash bail and is scheduled to appear in municipal court on July 11.

WORLD SERIES VIDEO PLANS IN THE MAKING

Local Man Departs For Three Day Meet

Glenn G. Phillips of 759 Beechwood drive left this week for New York City to hear everything about the World Series except the names of the teams which will be playing in this year's baseball classic.

Phillips, a member of the Gillette Safety Razor Company's sales staff, has been invited by company officials from Boston to participate in a three-day meeting (June 28, 29, 30) at the Waldorf-Astoria Hotel in New York City. They will discuss the company's plans for the national telecast and international broadcast of the sports classic sponsored by Gillette.

The airing of baseball's biggest yearly show has been sponsored by Gillette since 1939, 16 years of continous broadcasting. Stations around the world carry it to men in the armed forces and it is broadcast in French to Canada and in Spanish to Latin America.

Mr. Phillips will be away from his territory for a week. At the meeting, advertising and sales programs will be discussed and Gillette's radio and TV experts will explain plans for this year's coverage of the World Series which will have the largest television and radio audience in the history of sports.

Minor Injuries In Serra Auto Collision

An elderly San Francisco woman received minor injuries early Tuesday morning when her auto was hit broadside by another vehicle on Junipero Serra boulevard.

Broadmoor police said Ethel Meyers, 72, of 337 Tara, attempted to turn around on the boulevard near the intersection of Edgemar road when her auto was struck by George Nicoladze, 34, of 72 Maywood drive, also of San Francisco, who was travelling south on Serra.

She was treated at Junipero Serra hospital for a head bruise and then released.

Neither driver was cited.

Suspension went to Richard Jerome Mora, 808 Ellis drive, Daly City.

Placed on probation were: Robert Allen Morasch, 208 Manor drive, Sharp Park; Baruck Peter Petranker, 126 Garden Lane, Garden Village; and Dexter Marius Philippe, 168 Ramona, Sharp Park.

Permanent reinstatements were granted to Arthur Paul Castagnoli, 456 Irvington street and Bernard Lazar Norris, 101 San Diego avenue, both of Daly City.

HONOR DALY CITY

Daly City received word this week from California State Automobile association that the city will receive a commendation citation for not having a single pedestrian fatality during 1954.

An appropriate certificate honoring this achievement is being prepared and will be presented to the city in the near future, the CSAA said.

It marked the third straight year that Daly City has gone without a pedestrian fatality.

Westlake Indians Larrup Broadmoor In Recreation Play

The Westlake Indians made an impressive entry into the Daly City Recreation Department Summer league Saturday with an 8-2 victory over a good Broadmoor club.

The highlight was the fine pitching of Paul Tapia who relieved Bob Berry in the bottom half of the third frame. With the exception of Mack, who reached first in the third inning on an error, and singled in the seventh, Tapia set the Broadmoor boys down in order by fanning 16 of the 18 who faced him.

Broadmoor started fast by getting to starting pitcher Bob Berry for three hits and two runs in his two inning stint on the mound. The Indians however, retaliated in their second inning when Berry walked and promptly stole second and advanced to third on Garcia's rap to the first sacker. Steve Oppermann then drew a walk and stole second.

Berry and Oppermann checked in for the first of the three Indian runs when Ross Holmgren beat out an infield bunt. Ross also stole second and eventually scored the deciding run when Broadmoor catcher Martin threw wide at first on Dave Frost's bunt. With the ball in play and rolling down the right field line, Frost elected to try for third when he was thrown out on a nice relay from Coulter to Martin to Mack.

Local Children Join In Snitman Piano Recital

Following is a list of children who entertained: Laura Cole, Joanne Rossine, Frances and Shirley Krisinich, Raymond Andreini, Murray Jelm, Barbara Blessing and Sheila Koske.

Vehicle Department Suspends One License

Three area motorists were placed on probation and one had his operators license suspended in action reported recently by state department of motor vehicles.

POLICE CITE SF MAN IN JUNIPERO SERRA-ALEMANY ACCIDENT

A 22-year-old San Francisco man was given three citations by local police last Tuesday night when his car jumped the island at Junipero Serra and Alemany boulevards and crashed head on into another car.

Thomas R. Murphy, 1581 Sunnydale avenue, San Francisco, was cited for driving on the wrong side of the road, driving without a license and driving with faulty brakes.

The acicdent occurred when Murphy, attempting to make a right turn towards Westlake, lost control of his car. According to police, the car's brakes failed. Hurtling the island, the automobile crashed into a car driven by Irving J. Baltor, 29, of 773 South Mayfair avenue.

Damage to the front end of Baltor's car was estimated at $500, while damage to Murphy's automobile was estimated to be $300.

Both drivers were treated at Junipero Serra hospital for minor injuries.
